

TFG structure

1. Cover page
2. Acknowledgements
3. Abstract (summary of the research, which briefly describes its main conclusions and the arguments put forth. It should be no longer than 200 words)
4. List of Tables
5. List of Figures
6. List of Abbreviations
7. Table of contents (list the pagination of the chapters and sections of the report. Where tables, charts and/or graphs are used, a full list of these shall follow the table of contents)
8. Introduction (present the topic to be developed. It shall include the justification of its relevance (1), the objectives pursued (2), the research questions (3), the methodology and a brief explanation of how the work is structured (4). Structure could be:
  - a. Motivation
  - b. Objectives
  - c. Hypothesis
  - d. Structure
9. State of the art (frames the research hypothesis put forward by students from a theoretical standpoint)
10. Empirical study (illustrates and supports the research hypothesis. For this task, it is of utmost importance to inform correctly the sources used to obtain the information and data)
  - a. Materials and methods
  - b. Results
  - c. Discussion
11. Conclusions (highlight the main contributions to knowledge made by the research to the field of study, the evidence supplied which supports the research questions and hypothesis, as well as future areas of work left open by the project)
12. Bibliography
13. Annexes
